Sign Craft Industries (Indianapolis, IN), a full-service provider of sign solutions that works with clients in Indianapolis, the Midwest and nationally, will manufacture and install the Indianapolis-based Salin Bank's new logo. The new identity program will be used on all 24 banking centers throughout the state.

The bank's exterior signage will be replaced over the next two to three years utilizing Sign Craft Industries' branding expertise and bank-client servicing and installation experience. "Sign Craft is looking forward to working with Salin Bank on this exciting reimagining program," said Greg Beyerl, CEO and owner of Sign Craft Industries. "We take great pride in the delivery of quality product and the impact they have on our customer's image in the communities they serve."

Located on the northeast side of Indianapolis, Sign Craft features the most industry advanced equipment and cutting edge technology. Turnkey capabilities include design; custom fabrication; installation; service/maintenance; permitting and variances.
